What were the challenges?

- Rapid growth over a three-year period from 18 employees to over 90.
- A fast-moving sector which generally sees a high turnover of staff. PRG wanted to attract and retain employees with a competitive reward package.

“ PES has gone above and beyond in providing an employee benefits solution that really matches our needs. happypeople helps us to stand out as an employer of choice. The fact that they could help in so many other areas has been a real bonus. It's unusual to find a supplier who can cater so well for the needs of a business like ours. ”

How did PES help?

- We launched our online employee benefits solution happypeople, which gave PRG employees access to a range of exciting, relevant benefits on a cutting-edge technical platform.
- Perks at Work, a leading online shopping portal, was included free of charge. It introduced employees to thousands of leading UK high street retailers and a host of discounts, cashback deals, and other ways to save.

- Our regulated subsidiaries, PES Health and PES Financial Services, were able to source competitive healthcare benefits and support the company's auto enrolment process. We continue to administer the pension scheme.
- Our scalable employee benefits solution grew with the business, adding more benefits as employee needs evolved.
- Our in-house HR experts supported the growing business by redeveloping the employee handbook to give employees a clear, positive welcome to the firm.

What was the result?

- 81% of employees have now registered with the scheme, thanks to our extensive employee communications.
- 75% of employees have registered with Perks at Work.
- PRG has been successful in recruiting and retaining a high calibre workforce.
- With extensive back-office administration and management reporting from PES, the company has saved hours of office time and has a clear picture of how well the scheme is performing.
- The business has also saved over £2,000 in National Insurance Contributions.

“ I’m very happy with PES as our employee benefits partner. I’d recommend them to any business looking to offer competitive benefits at a reasonable price. ”
